Sahib Restaurant & Bar - Review

CITP INC.

Rajiv Chopra, owner of Sahib Restaurant & Bar

For a delicious lunch buffet or just for an appetizing dinner on any day of the week or weekend, just drive to the west corner of St-John's boulevard at 225 Hymus in Pointe Claire.

Now open for three years, Sahib is a sensational Indian Restaurant in the heart of Montreal's West-Island that boasts of authentic north Indian food and efficient service at all times. Sahib is the brain-child of the experienced Rajiv Chopra, who has been serving West-Islanders with quality Indian cuisine for the last 12 years. His efforts of bringing together professionally trained chefs and attentive servers have helped establish this top-notch restaurant.

An elegant Indian ambience pulls you in as you walk through the doors towards the warm and friendly atmosphere of the place where your host always with a smile, is omnipresent to escort you to your table.

With a fully licensed Bar, Sahib restaurant has a fantastic choice of imported (including British Drafts) and domestic Beer, which goes very well with Indian food, along with a simple, yet adequate wine list.

After you cozy in with the appetizers, especially the tandoori ones, the fine aroma of Indian cuisine pulls you to the buffet table (available Mon-Friday between 11:30 and 2:30pm) where one finds faced with a choice of a dozen quality recipes including their famous Butter Chicken. You can choose among the beans, vegetarian selections and meat dishes. Only the finest basmati rice is used and the naan bread is always fresh baked.

If you are concerned about health, try the Tandoori Dishes, which are fat free and succulently baked in a charcoal heated clay oven. The Lunch Buffet is definitely a great bargain.

This efficient service is accommodated in a clean and cozy atmosphere. The waiters / waitresses look after you superbly.

"Our emphasis is on quality and not quantity," says Mr. Chopra.

Besides the buffet, the A la Carte menu is full of delectable choices in vegetarian, chicken, lamb and seafood dishes. The Murgh-Malai Kebab, Saag Paneer, Afghani Lamb-Chops & Konkani-Style Black-Tiger

Shrimps deserve a special mention

Take advantage of the happy hour before dinner, which is from 5-7pm from Monday to Friday.

If you feel undecided with the choices of food, as you often will with one dish sounding even more appetizing than the other, try the Sahib specialities which will provide you with assorted tastes of vegetarian and meat specialities.

Sahib also has excellent choice of desserts ranging from Kheer to Mango breeze.

Just in case you are running short on time, take out your orders at 10% discount. Even simpler, the free-delivery service is available to most of the West-Island.

Or celebrate at Sahib Restaurant and Bar that accommodates private parties for up to 60 guests. Ample parking is available on the premises. A personalized, gourmet Catering Service is available for small home parties and big wedding banquets.

To sum it up- whether you are a romantic couple, an office lunch group or just a simple quiet diner, Sahib Restaurant & Bar aims to please.
